

2017 ELITE COACHING BIO

Name: Piers Ross

Age: 26

Hometown: Portsmouth, RI, USA

Born in: Southampton, England

About Me

I have two Bachelor Degrees, one in Psychology and one in English. I recently finished the school portion of a full-time MBA program at San Diego State University – I still have an internship to complete. I enjoy working on the business side and the coaching side of soccer but if I had to choose I would choose the coaching side. I have a great love for the game and I feel like my passion pushes me to gain a sense of confidence.
